CCF Event Update

6th October 2007....Saturday...a Mega Musical Event is going to rock Chennai!!

Hosted by CCF....in aid of a World Vision Project

We need volunteers for this event and if you can lend a helping hand in this mighty task to reach the corporates and the city for Christ with a good will mission, please feel free to contact us.

If you need more details and want to be updated as things are unfurled, please register yourself in the CCF website (www.ccf.org.in) for alerts....it is the way to be in touch and updated.

Looking forward to see you on that day...mark the day in your calendars, organizers, PDA, laptop, desktop, whatever may be....but be there....Don't miss it...a great happening!!!

A Thought...

Spoken Word Impact by Chacko Jacob

I was fortunate to attend a meeting which featured a fantastic sermon by Pas. Sam Chelladurai. I base this message entirely on the inspiration got from him & from Genesis Chapter 1.

When you read the whole of Genesis Chapter 1 – We come across a few words repeatedly the words are “God Spoke” & in an equal frequency we come across the words “It happened as God spoke”

Later in Genesis Chapter 1 – The Bible explains “God created man in his own image & likeness”.

Now, I have an honest admission to make – I have not seen God's image and do not have a clue as to how he looks except for the Biblical descriptions of God's image which I have read and understood.

But the word, 'likeness' “attracts me. If God spoke and it happened as he spoke then, when I (Chacko) who as the Bible says is in the likeness of God speaks, then it should happen as I speak.

You & I create our own misery and joy with the spoken word. You & I create our own success and failure with our spoken word. If you say “I am a failure” – You will be a failure. If you say “I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me” – Then you will be able to do all things.

If one of the likenesses between man & God is the spoken word then we need to watch the words we speak.

I encourage you to speak positive things & positive outcomes into your life. Believe me it will happen. Believe me because I know. The difference between me being a 12th fail and an engineering college drop out to me now being a double post graduate degree holder (I complete my second degree by June 2008) is the Spoken Word. Some encouraging words, I spoke to myself, other words were given to me through someone by God & Yes, at times a word was inspired by the Lord himself.

The same applies to you with regard to your office, marriage, family, CCF & any other dream that you wish to make real. Just "Speak The Word". Starting from now speak positive words into all things concerning your life giving thanks to God in advance as though it has already happened.

Believe me "It will happen". Praise God.
